

USE OF THE TROVE

POLICY STATEMENT

The Trove, the library for children, serves children from birth through Grade 6. Young people in Grade 7 and above should use The Edge, the library for teens, located on the first floor. Adults are welcome to use The Trove if they are actively engaged in utilizing the Trove's collection.

A parent or adult caregiver must supervise children under the age of eight at all times. Children under the age of twelve must not be left unattended for any extended length of time.

Adopted by the White Plains Library Board of Trustees on: 9/11/13
i:\policy\approved\use of the trove
u:\policies\customer service (pdf)