

Dear Library Foundation Supporters,

"The Edge" Construction Update:

Construction of our new teen space, The Edge, is progressing on schedule. The interior walls are taking shape, and you can get a sense for how spacious The Edge will be. We are grateful for supporters like you who have helped make this project happen. We can't wait to begin serving teens in their own new home at the Library, when The Edge opens later this fall!

(At right) Meet Austin Olney, our Digital Media Specialist, who will be working with teens on digital media projects in The Edge. When The Edge opens, it will be well equipped with technology, thanks to grants from several generous funders.

Foundation Sponsored Program: Planning for Long Term Care Weds., Oct. 2, 7 pm, White Plains Public Library

If you got sick and needed long term care, how would you pay for it? Who would handle your bills and your health care decisions? Are you worried that your aging parents might need long term care? Elder law attorney Frances Pantaleo, Partner of Walsh, Amicucci & Pantaleo LLP and Chair of the Elder Law Section of the New York State Bar Association, will help you navigate this complicated topic, discussing ways to protect your assets, estate planning considerations, and long term care insurance. Part of the Allstate Readiness Series, a community education program supported by a generous grant from The Allstate Foundation. This program is free and refreshments will be served.

Join us for the Foundation's Fall Gala, Sat. Nov. 2, 7-10pm!

The Foundation's Eighth Annual Fall Gala, "the edge & beyond! Celebrating The Edge, Imagining The Future," takes place at the Library on Saturday, Nov. 2, 7-10 pm.

Get a sneak peak at The Edge before it opens to the public, and salute three honorees who have contributed greatly to youth development in our community: The Shinnyo-en Foundation, Frank Williams, Jr., and Yuki Itoh Haynes. For more about the event, click here.

Tickets are $125, and sponsorships and "virtual journal" ads are available. To RSVP online, click here, or call 914-422-1495.
