Dear Friend:

You know what makes me really happy? When I walk around the Library and see every room full, with programs happening throughout the entire building. This spring and summer the Library will really be hopping, as we are partnering with our colleagues at Recreation and Parks to offer some of their terrific programs here in the Library--- details below.

In Performance: Pianist Adam Kent Sunday, April 26, 2 p.m.

Pianist Adam Kent returns to the White Plains Library for the 16th annual Clarice Wilson Memorial Concert.

On the program are works by composers especially esteemed by Clarice, including Schubert, Mozart, and Bach/Busoni, as well as classics of the Spanish repertory and George Gershwin's ever-popular "Rhapsody in Blue."

Reception following the concert. Sponsored by the White Plains Library Foundation.

Forum on Human Trafficking Brings Experts to White Plains

Trafficking is the global practice of exploiting vulnerable women, men and children for use as commodities in conditions of sexual servitude (in the sex industry) or labor servitude (in operations such as sweatshops, farm labor, or domestic service).

But trafficking is not just an international problem. The United States is the second highest destination in the world for trafficked women with New York State amongst those hardest hit.

Join us for "Present Day Enslavement in our Communities," a forum on Human Trafficking, on April 15 from 7 to 9 p.m.

Speakers include NYS Assemblywoman Amy Paulin; Gonzalo Martinez de Vedia of the Human Trafficking Program, Worker Justice Center; Carl J. Boykin, Director of Human Trafficking Prevention for the New York State Division of Criminal Justice Services; and Lauren Hersh, Director, Anti-Trafficking Policy & Advocacy, Sanctuary for Families.

Sponsored by the League of Women Voters of White Plains and co-sponsored by the White Plains Public Library, the White Plains Rotary, White Plains El Centro Hispano and the Slater Center of White Plains.
