Dear Friend:

The month of May is bringing us not just flowers, but a terrific selection of programs. Join us on May 6th to hear NYT-bestselling author Karen Abbott (details below). On May 16 the White Plains Cares Coalition will present a Comic festival at the Library (more here.) On May 17th, at the Friends Annual Meeting, we'll hear about some of the history of downtown White Plains at "Out of the Swamp: A History of Downtown White Plains Told through 100 Martine Avenue." And that's not all! Check out our calendar for all our May events.

Support us May 5-6 in Online Giving Event!

Here's a great opportunity to support your library this Spring and enable us to offer great programs for all ages!

The Fixer

A down on his luck journalist finds $3.4 million in cash hidden in the walls of his father's home, but Dad, a stroke victim, isn't talking.

Freedom's Child

Freedom Oliver isn't just the brash, tatted biker bar chick she seems to be, and those who know this want her dead.

Innocence

There's been a murder in a movie theater - did one

White Plains Library Foundation is participating in Give Local Westchester Putnam, a 24-hour online giving event, sponsored by United Way, celebrating the spirit of giving and the collective effort it takes to strengthen our community by supporting local non-profits. Donations will be accepted for 24 hours starting at noon on Tuesday, May 5. Your gift will go even farther thanks to the generosity of an anonymous donor who will match all gifts up to a total of $10,000 received in this period.

Meet Bestselling Author Karen Abbott

On Wednesday, May 6 at 7:30 PM New York Times bestselling author Karen Abbott will discuss the true stories of four women who risked everything to serve their country's cause during the Civil War (both the United States and the Confederate States of America). Drawing on Abbott's latest book, Liar, Temptress, Soldier, Spy, the stories of these four women are woven together with other historical figures to produce a tale as historically accurate as it is spellbinding.

Karen Abbott is the author of Sin in the Second City, American Rose, and Liar, Temptress, Soldier, Spy, which was named one of the best books of 2014 by Library Journal, the Christian Science Monitor, Amazon, and Flavorwire, and was optioned by Sony for a miniseries.

This event is sponsored by the Daniel E. Sickles Civil War Roundtable and the White Plains Historical Society.

Printer not working? Or maybe you don't want to bother owning a printer....or you're in downtown White Plains and need to quickly print out a document?

Relax. You can now print to the Library's printers from your computer, tablet, or smartphone--in fact, from anywhere you have access to the Internet. You can submit a print job 24/7, and pick it up during our open hours, 15 minutes before closing. The system keeps print jobs for 24 hours after you submit them.

For more information, check out the video above and visit Mobile Printing.

In addition, we're making freely available--for White Plains card holders--send-only fax service. For more on this, visit WPPL Fax Service.
