

By: Kathleen Degyansky
Dept.: Assistant Director
Subject: Monthly Report for December 2015
Date: January 6, 2016

EXHIBITS

- Met with photographer and White Plains resident, Michael Freidman, to arrange for a display of his work in summer of 2016.
- Met with representatives from ArtsWestchester on December 21 to finalize plans for their next exhibit, SHE, to be on display March through May. Additional cultural programming is planned and the Library will prepare a booklist for the exhibit.
- Arranged a gallery reception on the evening of December 9 for the current exhibit, Revisiting Arcadia, presented in collaboration with ArtsWestchester. Forty-five people attended.

PROGRAMMING

- Monitored a program on living a whole food plant-based diet on December 3. Nine people attended.
- Coordinated volunteers for the Food Bank Distribution on December 23. More than 130 families benefitted.

RENOVATION

- Attended a meeting on December 22 to discuss plans for continued service during the renovation.
- Continued a sampling project to determine ways adults make use of the first floor.

STAFF

- Arranged for posting of the Children's Librarian position on NYLINE, METRO, WLS, WLA, and library schools' websites.
- Together with the Head of Collection Management, conducted interviews for a part time position in that department.
- Participated in second round interviews for Executive Director of the Library Foundation.