

MINUTES OF MEETING 5/22/19

Attending; Betty Barone, Kathlyn Carroll, Deb Gaffey, Elizabeth Hughes, Brian Kenney, Sandy McDaniel, Lee Palmer, Angie Poulos, Susan Siegel

This, our last meeting of our fiscal year, was held at Graziella restaurant.

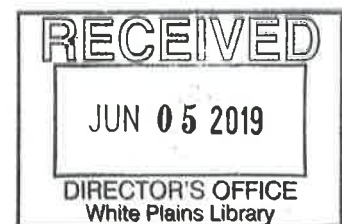

Scott Jamison, the magician who performed for us on April 28th, was awarded an A-plus by the mesmerized audience of more than 100 (lots of children) His manner was relaxed and charming and his program was fun and amazing. For sure he'll be invited back.

For the Bob Mills concert on May 19th our guest performer was Carolyn Enger. A recognized gifted pianist, she enthralled the audience of more than 50 music lovers. It was a brilliant conclusion to our year. Bob would have been delighted.

We voted to purchase 200 copies of "White Plains in the 20th Century" part of a series called Images of America by Arcadia Publishers. This is a many months-long project researched and compiled by Elaine Massena and Ben Himmelfarb. Publication is expected by September and we'll prepare a special display in the bookstore for its sale. More details later.

We then proceeded to the highlight of the day - lunch and chat. (Both of which were top notch) It was fun being with everyone and we wish all a happy, healthy and not-too-hot summer. We'll be in touch before September.
