Contactless Curbside Pickup
Starts Monday

While our book drop has been open to collect returns since Monday, our next big service announcement is Contactless Curbside Pickup begins this coming Monday, June 15.

In a nutshell, this is how it works: You’ll call us and tell us what you’re looking for – books, movies, CDs. Each White Plains library card holder can request three items per day. We’ll find the items, and if they’re available, let you know. We’ll check them out right to your card. Then, you’ll pull in to the cut out at the front of the building between 10:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m. and let us know you’ve arrived. Then we get your books to a table outside for you to pick up. Easy peasy lemon squeezy!

Of course, it’s a bit more complicated than that, so check out the full details and instructions on our website.

We’re very excited to be moving into this next phase of service, and we hope you are too. Of course, during this time the rest of our services and programs remain virtual, so be sure to keep an eye on our website and our calendar for upcoming events. For example, information about our virtual summer camps and summer reading program will be coming soon!
