Dear Friend,

What does the Library mean to you?

Access to thousands of books and movies on Libby, Hoopla, Kanopy? Virtual book groups, computer support, wellness programs and family activities? Curbside pickup, then lobby accessible holds—antidotes to isolation?

When COVID struck our community, the White Plains Public Library quickly transformed itself into a dynamic virtual library. Within days of closing the building in March, the incredible staff responded in unprecedented ways and they've continued to innovate throughout the pandemic.

Thanks to our donors, the Foundation has been there every step of the journey.

Community contributions supplement essential funding from the City of White Plains by providing on-going support for storytimes and performances for children, teen activities, technology instruction, language learning, author visits, more large print and audiobooks, new mobile Hot Spots, content-rich newsletters to thousands of subscribers, and more.

The Library's resources are keeping us connected and engaged during these unusual times. Donate today, and help the Library stay strong and responsive in 2021.

With appreciation,

"Great to be back in the building and browse the new books. I get it, no chairs for now. Thanks for your thoughtful procedures to keep us safe."

"Families with young children appreciate the virtual programming you have available. You're an inspiration to all of us trying to serve families in need."

"We applaud the efforts of the Library to maintain its central role in the community during these difficult times!"
